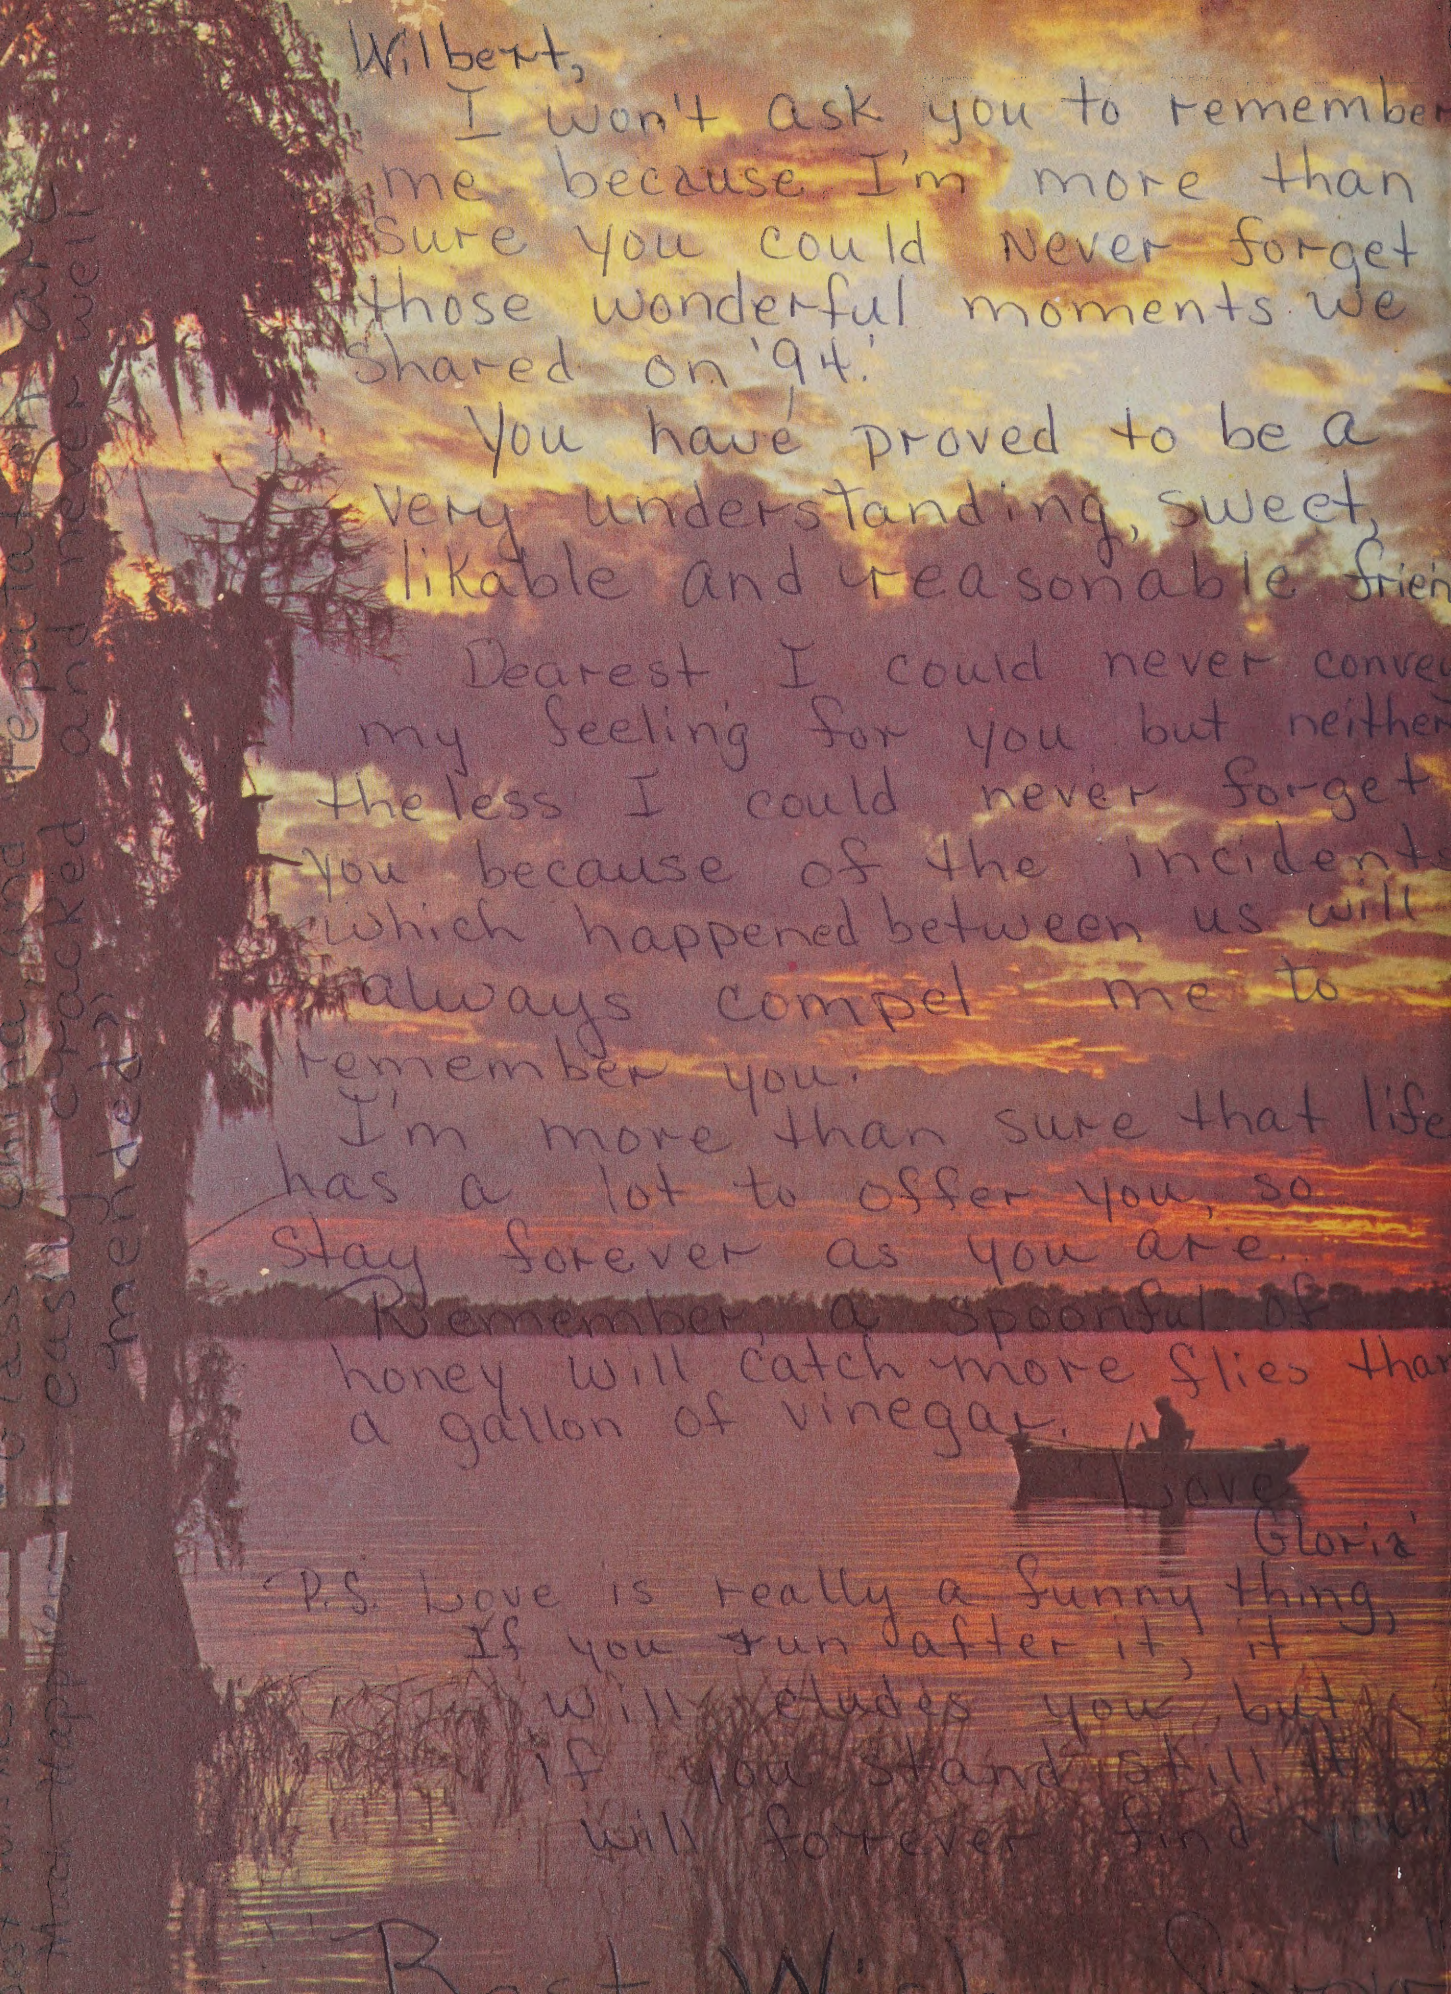
FALCONIAN



Wilbert,

I won't ask you to remember me because I'm more than sure you could never forget those wonderful moments we shared on '94.

You have proved to be a very understanding, sweet, likable and reasonable frien

Dearest I could never convey my feeling for you but neither the less I could never forget you because of the incidents which happened between us will always compel me to remember you.

I'm more than sure that life has a lot to offer you, so stay forever as you are.

Remember, a spoonful of honey will catch more flies than a gallon of vinegar.

Love
Gloria

P.S. Love is really a funny thing, If you run after it, it will eludes you, but if you stand still it will forever find you

Best wishes
Much Happiness

"Glass, china, and reputation are easily cracked and never well mended"

To err is human,
to repent divine;
to persist is devilish!

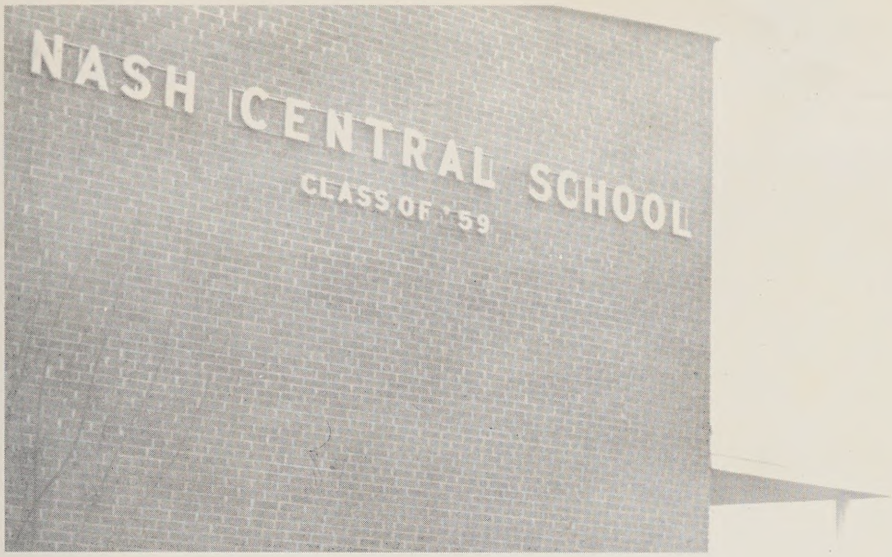
Our Alma Mater

Sound the voice of N.C.H.S.
Falcons on the wing
Fell the prey O Central warriors
Bells of victory ring.
Deeds of honor, fame and fortune,
We are pledged to do
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Hail, all hail thy Name.

Sound our love for N.C.H.S.
Let it ring afar,
All her ideals we will cherish,
When we'r near or far.
Truth and honor, praise and reverence
We will always give.
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
May you ever live.

Through the years of strife and battle,
We will prove our worth
For to us our Alma Mater
Is supreme on earth.
Yea, forever er will praise her,
And our song shall be
Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Hail, oh hail to thee!

OUR SCHOOL



DEDICATION

We, the graduating class of 1964, proudly dedicate The Falconian to our dear school, its teachers and principal.

We chose you as our dedicatees because it was here at Nash Central with the help of your guidance that we began our venture down the road of knowledge and humility towards success.

This product of our labor holds many fond memories for us. We believe that none of these would have been possible if you, our teachers and principal, had not done so much to make our stay at dear old Nash Central a pleasant and profitable one.

This small token is our attempt to say "thank you." We can never completely express our appreciation in words but it is our fondest hope that our conduct and success upon graduation will add to our verbal attempt to show our appreciation to you.

OUR SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. C. H. Fries

ADMINISTRATION

OUR PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The senior class and their teachers and particularly the yearbook staff and their advisers have done an excellent job in publishing the 1964 edition of the "Falcon."

Yours is the last high school class that will be housed on the "old campus." It is, therefore, particularly fitting that a yearbook be published so that memories may be renewed as you peruse the pages of this publication.

I believe and hope that these years at Nash Central have had an indelible impression upon you. I implore you to ever be appreciative of your school and the families, community and state which make your public school education possible. Show through the adequacy of your lives that you hold high the ideals of your home, community and school.

May the good things of life await you and may your contributions to the lives of others be worthwhile as you prepare to leave these "sacred walls" of Nash Central High.

T. M. Ringer, Principal
Nash Central School

PEOPLE IN CHARGE

Miss M. A. Ellison
Elementary Supervisor

Mr. R. K. Corbett
Assistant Principal and Guidance Counselor

Mrs. A. D. Bailey
Librarian and Chairman of High School Department

Mrs. J. D. Hall
Secretary and treasurer

A TRIBUTE TO OUR TEACHERS

Each year as the school of Nash Central opened, you were here to welcome us into the arms of your knowledge. You dusted the cobwebs from our minds and refertilized the seeds of knowledge which you had planted within us. You instilled in our minds the inspiration to obtain the highest goal possible for the years to come. For this we are grateful.

As the years of the past parade before us, we can sometime see, that many of us would have faltered along the highways of knowledge had it not been for you. You told us, you showed us, you instilled within us, the idea that if we are to be men and women of tomorrow we must be giants of today. That the world of tomorrow would be one of complexability and automation and a man without an education would find himself on the outside without the very keys he needs to get in. Yes, dear teachers, you laid the foundation of knowledge which we are to build our worlds upon. For this we are grateful.

It seems that all too quickly we forget the teacher; a patient, hard-working and underpaid molder of minds. This I am quite sure will not be the case for the Class of 1964.

CLASS HISTORY

The past four years of our high school days have held more memories and pleasures than it will be possible to reaccount in a few brief paragraphs constituting a class history.

On August 24, 1960, one hundred and forty-seven students -- some acquainted and others not knowing one another but yet to become the best of inseparable friends, stepped over the threshold of high school education to face horizons yet unknown.

Our president that year was Johnnie King; our advisors -- Mrs. K. N. Lucas, Mrs. V. H. Mann and Mr. Leon Vaughan.

At the termination of our freshman year we were everything but green.

In August of 1961, we were again reunited, but not so fortunate as to have all of our former classmates and advisors with us. To replace one of our favorite advisors, Mrs. K. N. Lucas who was out on leave, we were fortunate to have the guidance of Mrs. M. A. Bynum. Our class president was Charles Battle.

During our sophomore year we continued to take advantage of the opportunities which high school offered participating in the various activities and excelling in some.

We had a rewarding junior year with approximately 109 juniors and a new advisor, Miss M. L. Lucas. Of all the activities in the year of 1963, the words, "Magic Moments" recall the fondest memories, for that was the theme of our Junior-Senior Prom. Burl Middleton was class president.

And now comes our senior year -- the year of good-by and farewells to fores -- some never to be seen again, but yet never-never to be forgotten. This year -- the one of most importance the one of most heartaches, trials and tribulations -- is surely to be remembered always as the 96 of us, part in body but never in mind.

Burl Middleton heads the class again this year. Our advisors are Mrs. K. N. Lucas, Mrs. O. K. Young and Mrs. V. H. Mann. Our members have been outstanding in all school activities.

As this history is written, it is not to be forgotten as most histories but it is a salute to the future endeavors and undertakings of our fellow classmates, sweethearts and friends.
